ICAA - RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS

Our school department has a long and positive history of respecting family needs within educational programming. This directive officially requests that no major examinations or school-sponsored co-curricular activities be conducted during the school day and that the introduction of new course work be minimized on dates when students of various faiths are absent in observance of Holy Days. Examples of these days are Rosh Hashanah, Yom Kippur and Good Friday.

As Amended:

- November 9, 1989

Reviewed:

- September 13, 1994

Recoded:

- June 1998

Adopted:

- March 14, 2006
- September 10, 2013

Revision #2
Created 26 October 2021 18:45:18 by Troy Patterson
Updated 3 July 2023 14:01:48